

Impact Latin America engages partners to equip Latin American leaders to foster a movement that multiplies disciples, leaders and churches

This is a church planting movement!

There are generations of new disciples and leaders

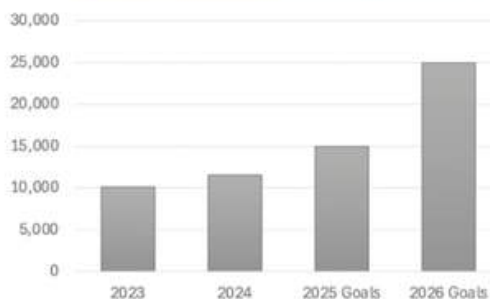

Disciples multiplying disciples | Leaders multiplying leaders
Houses of peace multiplying new houses of peace and the gospel keeps spreading

Disciples Making Disciples

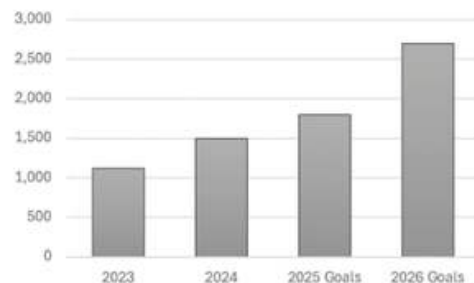

Individuals from local churches are trained to seek People of Peace and effectively share their faith (Luke 10) resulting in fruitful kingdom building.

New Believers Discipled

New believers are introduced to a two year discipleship program in a gathering of their friends and family - called a House of Peace.

Houses of Peace

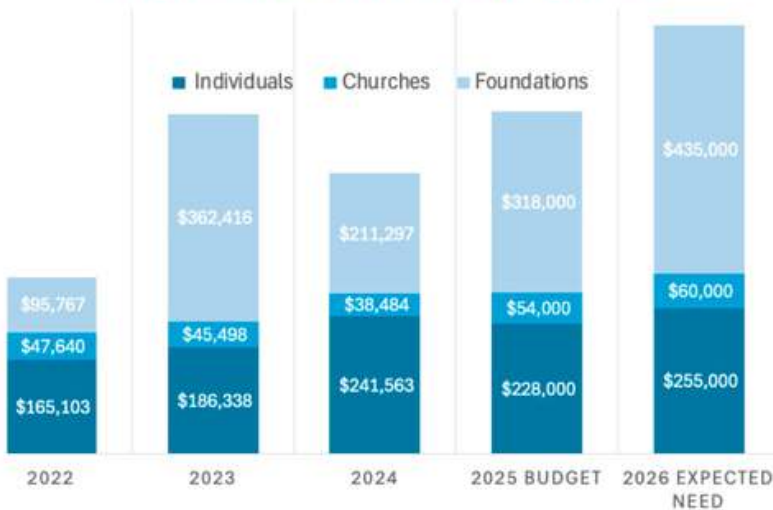

Houses of Peace (our name for house churches) provide the setting for discipleship for new believers. Only active churches are reported in this graph.

Having witnessed firsthand the impact of Impact Latin America during my visit to Colombia in 2022, I can attest to the transformative work they are accomplishing. In my role, I interact with many organizations working to have global missional impact. Rarely have I seen an organization create such substantive work using so little resources that expands at such a rapid rate."

INCOME Actual and Projected

EXPENSES Actual and Budgeted

"As a donor and board treasurer, I see first-hand how Impact Latin America financially stewards this movement. Intentionally, we invest in people not buildings. This reduces costs, allows for flexibility, and puts our attention toward developing people. There are almost 1250 leaders throughout Latin America, 97% volunteer. IMPACT is truly a leveraged ministry that exponentially expands every donation."
